Do You Have An Attitude By Father Joseph Boules

Category : Social Issues

Published by Stbishoy on 2007/10/11

Do You Have An Attitude?

Â

Some youth perceive the Coptic Church to be boring, long and something should be done about. Is the church really

Â

An honest self-examination is in order to reveal what are one's interests! If the interests are spiritual and the church is

Â

Saint Matthew recounts the miracle of the five loaves and two fishes, "when it was evening, His disciples came to Him

Â

The disturbing thought is that some may find the Orthodox Church to be inconvenient therefore label it boring! Some e

Â

So, what is wrong? Something has to be wrong because, for some people, the feeling of boredom exists. What can be

Â

The answer begins with you! You have got to be honest enough to admit your interests and goals. Do they include Go

Â

On the other hand, it is hard to measure the outcome of completing spiritual activities. The rewards are often heavenly

Â

Part of the solution is to make adjustments to the attitude towards the church. It would be beneficial to know whether a

Â

What helps is if you examine your goals and know where the role of the church is in your life. When these goals are cl

Â

The key to attending church and actually benefiting spiritually is to alter the attitude towards the church. Remember tha